Notes on the ritual of prayers for healing: We approach healing holistically and sacramentally affirming the truth that God does the healing. We do not drive a wedge between the ministry of the church and the efforts of medical science nor do we want to separate physical healing from spiritual or social liberation. We also avoid any appearance of "magic" in prayers for healing that places trust in a certain set of words or actions and replaces God in the healing process.

Visitors, we welcome you to English Lutheran Church! We are glad that you are joining us today and hope you find your worship here to be meaningful. Feel free to introduce yourself to one of the pastors and visit the Welcome Center in the narthex for information on ELC and a free gift. Please stay for fellowship between services on Sundays. Also, be sure to complete a pew card to let us know you are visiting!

Welcome to this service of Holy Communion. Lutherans believe that Christ, the Incarnate Word of God, is truly present in the Lord's Supper and that in this meal of the baptized children of God our Lord gives forgiveness of sins, life and salvation. All who seek the mercy and grace of God in this Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus are welcome to the Lord's Table. For those who desire wine, choose a clear cup from the tray. Those who desire grape juice, choose a purple cup. Gluten free wafers for are available. Indicate your desire for a gluten free wafer by declining to receive a traditional wafer.
