Internship by Pastor Mark Solyst

I am pleased to announce that our pastoral intern for the 2019-2020 academic year will be Danielle (Danni) Dunasky. Danni will have completed two years at Luther Seminary in St. Paul Minnesota before she joins us here at English Lutheran Church for her internship year. After her internship, Danni will return to Luther Seminary for her senior year before she graduates and is eligible for assignment as a pastor in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA).

Danni is empathetic, sincere and warm-hearted and will fit well with our English Lutheran community. Because Danni did not grow up in the Church, she will help us understand the Nones and will be a good resource for our leadership as we develop plans for the future of our congregation. Danni describes herself as an extrovert and a people person who loves to meet new people. "I look forward to building relationships in a new community."

When asked what she wants to learn on her internship, Danni said she has never taught confirmation and was never in a confirmation class as a youth and needs to learn how to teach confirmation. She also wants to learn how to preach, lead Bible studies, do church administration and lead a stewardship program.

A turning point in her spiritual life was the 2012 National Youth Gathering in New Orleans where she had an overwhelming experience and "all the doubts washed away." After the youth gathering, she dove into the church, and eventually felt called to enter Luther Seminary and study to be a pastor.

Danni's home is Kenosha, Wisconsin. She is an only child. She comes to us highly recommended by Vicar Chad Rademacher. Danni will begin her internship at English Lutheran in the middle of August. Her first sermon at English Lutheran will be on Labor Day weekend.
