Irene TenEyck hired as Director of Caring Ministries by Pastor Mark Solyst

Irene TenEyck hired as Director of Caring Ministries

We are pleased to announce that Irene TenEyck has been hired as a Director of Caring Ministries. She will begin her position on June 1. Irene holds a Master of Science in Social Work (MSSW) from the University of Wisconsin in Madison. Currently, she serves as an adjunct professor at Viterbo University teaching sociology and social work.

Irene has extensive experience as an Elder Care Manager, End of Life Doula, Medical Social Worker, and Hospice Social Worker. This fall, Irene will enroll in a Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) program at Gundersen Medical Center in order to enhance her skill in providing pastoral care.

The Director of Caring Ministries will replace Pastor Roger Grow who has served as our Pastor of Caring Ministries since 2017, and will retire at the end of May (see article about Pastor Rog in the Voice Newsletter). In this capacity, Irene will supervise the caring ministries of our congregation including the distribution of the Sacrament of Holy Communion to our shut-ins. She will also visit members in the hospital, inactive members, new members, and provide support at the time of death.

As a member of our congregation, Irene serves as a Worship Coordinator and Healing Minister and is a regular participant in our Thursday morning Fayze's Bible Study. She serves on the Agile Church Guiding Team and is providing leadership for the six-week "Before You Go" series on Death and Dying sponsored by our Ministry Council. Irene and her husband, Brian, operate Sacred Grounds, a hospitality house for homeless people on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.
