VITAS

Kathy Hageseth and her family joined ELC in the mid 90's. She has been a member of the Discipleship Council and presently the Worship Council. She is a current member of the Transition Team. Kathy was a member for many years of the Monday Night discussion group, and participated in a yearlong group spiritual direction offered at ELC. She is a member of the junior bell choir. Community volunteering includes work with CROP Walk, Coulee Region Hunger Walk and volunteering at the Warming Center. She retired in 2019 from a long career in critical care nursing. Kathy and Jon have two adult children, Dave and Kristin.

Lois Oliver was baptized at English Lutheran Church in 1951. Lois' family moved to the Bad Axe Valley just East of Genoa. She joined several other Lutheran churches before returning to ELC in 1996 as a single mother of twin girls and two adult children. Lois was involved with the Sunday School program while her girls attended, teaching any grade that was offered, except theirs. She's served on the Stewardship Committee and Count Team for several years, and helps Altar Ministry on a regular basis. She truly enjoys her involvement with her church family, gardening, and her children and grandchildren.

David Seiffert has been attending English Lutheran since 2017 and joined in 2019. He has served on the Worship Council for two years and assists the ELC team in the La Crosse County Jail worship services. David has worked at Gundersen Health System for four years as a genetic counselor. He enjoys baseball. David married Kara at ELC in 2020.

Chris Dreves joined English Lutheran in December 1992, when the church was still on the corner of 16th & Cass Streets. He is very active in the Bethlehem Event and the English Ringers bell choir, and also serves as an usher. Chris always hops the bus to ELC Brewers games. He has worked at the Ho-Chunk Nation for 14 years as an accounting manager. He has two boys: Jason living in Minneapolis and Jacob living in St. Point.
