

Behavior Contract

Mission:

Our mission is to provide a space that is safe, physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually, so kids know, live, and grow in faith.

General Classroom Guidelines:

Following are the overall guidelines for those participating in confirmation ministry in this church:

- Show Respect – for yourself, for other kids, and for adults
- Come Prepared – Bring a pen, Bible, notebook, and a good attitude
- Make Your Best Effort – Participate in the activities you have chosen

Virtual Guidelines:

The virtual guidelines students expected to follow:

- All classroom norms apply when in a Zoom session. In other words, if you would not do it while in the physical space of the classroom, do not do it in a digital setting.
- Position your camera properly so that the leader can clearly see your face
- No multi-tasking. Avoid disruptions during class time.
- Participation: Every participant will be expected to contribute when called on
- Appropriate electronic backgrounds. Students must use appropriate background while in session.

Consequences:

If you choose not to follow these guidelines, your leader or a supervising adult will choose any of the following consequences listed below to deal with a problem, as he or she deems necessary:

1. Give a verbal warning.
2. Remove you from the group to work independently with another adult and require a parent to sit with you during the next class.
3. Make a phone call home.
4. Send a letter home.
5. Set up a parent/leader/confirmand conference.
6. Remove you permanently from the group, with the option of completing your work at home under the supervision of a parent.

Parents:

Know your child's schedule. Please be prompt when dropping your child off and picking your child up OR making sure they are logged in to the ZOOM classes on time. Please spend time discussing this contract with your child. This contract must be signed by both the confirmand and his/her/their parent. The confirmand must return the signed form by September 8th. Confirmands must return the contract prior to beginning classes.
